High School of Business™ students nationwide have the opportunity to earn up to six college credits from Bowling Green State University in Bowling Green, Ohio. Credit is available for the following courses:

- BA 1500—Overview of Business Administration (3 credit hours)
- ECON 2000—Introduction to Economics (3 credit hours)

Procedure:

- Complete all six required courses\(^{1}\) in the High School of Business™ sequence
- Apply to BGSU. Be sure to check the “High School of Business™” box on the supplemental information form.
- Be accepted to and enroll at BGSU
- Gain admission into BGSU’s College of Business
- Authorize MBAResearch to send final exam scores for all six required High School of Business™ courses to BGSU\(^{2}\)
- For BA 1500 credit: BGSU will contact the student regarding administering an examination to receive credit.
- For ECON 2000: Students who scored 70 or higher on the High School of Business™ Business Economics exam will earn credit for ECON 2000.
  - Alternative: students who scored between 60 and 69 on the High School of Business™ Business Economics exam will earn credit for ECON 1xxx\(^{3}\).
- BGSU will administer a transcription fee\(^{4}\) for each course transcripted to student in mid-fall of his/her first semester at BGSU\(^{6}\).

Special Notes:

- High School of Business™ students are encouraged to apply for BGSU’s College of Business scholarships
- Prospective BGSU students are encouraged to contact the College of Business\(^{5}\) to be added to database to receive direct communication.

\(^{2}\) If student is under 18 at the time of the request, a parent must consent as well. Email a request to BerkeyL@MBAResearch.org.

\(^{3}\) ECON 1xxx is a non-equivalent course that is recognized as 3 hours of credit but is not equivalent to a specific course at BGSU. It will count as an elective.

\(^{4}\) Transcription fee is $80 per course as of January 2013.

\(^{5}\) Contact information: Bowling Green: Susan Kosakowski at sekosak@bgsu.edu.

\(^{6}\) Students who do not meet exam minimums will not be charged the transcription fee.
