HIGH SCHOOL of BUSINESS
By MBA*Research*

High School of Business: A Look at the Numbers Compiled October 2019
9.5	College credits on average earned by High School of Business students[1]
32%	Schools offering honors/weighted credit for High School of Business courses[1]
26%	Schools with college credit options at 4-year universities in place for their HSB students[1]
55%	Schools with college credit options at 2-year colleges in place for their HSB students[1]
6	College credit agreements in place at national level (open to all HSB students)
16	Public business presentations delivered by every High School of Business student (at minimum)
34%	Schools reporting a program completion rate of 60% or higher[1]
5,765	Number of participating students nationwide[2]
97%	Math and English Language Arts state-mandated benchmarks met[1]
95%	Alumni who believe participation will increase their ability to succeed in a career[3]
94%	Alumni who believe participation will increase their ability to succeed in a college[3]
94%	Local business community relationships improve when schools offer High School of Business[1]
78%	College and university relationships improve with High School of Business[1]

[1] 2018-19 High School of Business Self-Study. Completed by each school offering HSB in 2018-19.
[2] Number of students who took one of the HSB end-of-course exams at the end of first semester 2018-19. WebXam.org.
[3] Student survey upon completion of the program, May/June 2019.