

2022 FBLA National Fall Leadership Conference

Colorado Convention Center, 700 14th St, Denver, CO 80202

Ethics All the Way: High School Ethics Summit (Designed for Students and Advisors)

We know life is full of difficult choices. Have you ever wished that you had a framework for thinking through the pros and cons? How to decide between right and wrong? Best and worst? Ethical and unethical? Join MBA Research and Curriculum Center and Denver-area business executives for the Ethics All the Way: High School Ethics Summit where you will meet, hear from, and interact with business executives as you learn about ethical dilemmas in the work world and develop your own toolkit for resolving ethical dilemmas. If you're wondering if this track is for you, take a look at what students have to say about a previous Ethics Summit.

Session One: Ethics in the Workplace

A business and industry leader will share their perspective on ethics and ethical leadership and what these topics look like in the workplace. Come learn about ethical dilemmas that you may encounter in a future career and how you can develop ethical decision-making skills that can be applied to both your professional and personal lives.

Session Two: Ethical Principles to Live By

Using a defined set of values can go a long way in making good decisions. Come learn about eight ethical principles that can simplify your decision-making process. These principles do not change when you are in new situations – whether at home, school, or work – and can help you establish a set of rules to guide your behavior when faced with tough decisions.

Session Three: What Does Ethical Leadership Look Like?

Ethical leadership brings together leadership and ethics. Research shows that ethics is the foundation of great leadership, but can anyone be an ethical leader? Join us as we take a look at what ethical leadership means, the benefits of ethical leadership, and determine if you have what it takes to be an ethical leader.

Session Four: Business Panel Discussion – Ethical Dilemmas in the Workplace

MBA Research will guide a discussion with local business professionals on their experiences navigating ethical dilemmas in business. You will have the opportunity to ask questions and participate in the discussion.

Session Five: Putting Your Ethics to the Test

Learning about ethics is one thing, but what about putting good decision-making to the test? Let's see if you can use ethical principles, apply them to real-world scenarios, and determine if you are making good decisions.
